

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Edwards Global Services, Inc. Names Michelle McClurg as Company's First COO

IRVINE, CA – October 8, 2014 – Edwards Global Services, Inc. (EGS), a leading provider of services that assist U.S. franchises with global expansion, is pleased to announce that Michelle McClurg has been appointed COO, effective immediately.

Ms. McClurg will oversee the company's day-to-day operations as EGS continues to expand its business as an outsourced international development department for U.S. franchisors via EGS' global team of executives and associates in 32 countries.

“Adding a leader of this caliber as our first Chief Operating Officer is a major step towards our goal: building the leading, international franchise development company,” said William Edwards, founder and CEO. “Michelle will play a key role in positioning our company for continued marketplace success. She brings a diverse set of leadership skills and extensive operations expertise that we will continue to leverage across the company.”

Prior to assuming the role of COO, Ms. McClurg spent 30 years with AT&T, planning and executing new initiatives, process improvements and cost reductions. She has also provided project leadership for several other Fortune 100 companies, including IBM and Hewlett-Packard, and she has successfully directed global projects in more than 31 countries.

Ms. McClurg's prior experience also includes working with several franchisors in their development and operations efforts. Holding such roles as director of franchise relations, Ms. McClurg planned and facilitated franchise training programs and domestic and international discovery days. She has managed the successful openings of multiple new franchise locations, being responsible for the design, development, and delivery of procedures, processes, forecasting and tracking of franchise resale programs and international franchise development programs.

Ms. McClurg has been the recipient of five National Excellence Awards for sales, client satisfaction, process improvements and cost initiatives, in addition to multiple regional and local commendations and awards. In 2013, Ms. McClurg earned her Certified Franchise Executive (CFE) designation.

“It's an honor to be named Edwards Global Services' first COO,” stated McClurg. “Already a recognized industry leader in taking U.S. franchises global, I will ensure that EGS continues to evolve to meet the demands of our U.S. franchisor clients who rely on our global reach, knowledge and scale to support their global business ambitions.”

About Edwards Global Services, Inc.

Edwards Global Services, Inc. (EGS) was founded in 2001 to help U.S. franchisors ‘go global.’ EGS functions as an outsourced international development department for our U.S. franchisor clients. EGS uses a proven, stepped process that assesses the global potential for the brand, develops a business plan to go global, and then implements the plan using our experienced U.S.-based executive team and in-country associate network in 32 countries. EGS only works with U.S. franchises that meet extremely strict performance requirements. To learn more, visit www.edwardsglobal.com.

Media Contact

Katherine Hills

Public Relations

Krush Creative Group LLC

+1 949 753 9069 (office direct)

+1 949 697 9715 (mobile)

kathy@krushcreative.com